

..... AND IT'S HERE!

Hundreds of hours spent cleaning, sorting, packing and storing thousands of books, CDs, DVDs, all donated by friends of the Club. Two years of missing the enormous financial boost the Fair brings to the Club. A final few weeks of planning meetings, organising publicity, putting up signs, moving almost every item of furniture in the Club to accommodate aisles and aisles of books..... and the Book Fair is here. As this Newsletter goes to air, thanks to the many volunteers who have contributed their time and expertise, our first Book Fair since 2019 will be under way.

Why not drop in and choose some new reading matter from the huge selection available!! There are also some wonderful offerings from our water colour painters- there is sure to be something to your taste.

Garden Improvements

Just in time to greet the many visitors to the Club for the Book Fair, our Garden Gnomes have made good use of some very welcome and generous donations to refresh the vegepod bed at the front of the Club and to extend the new garden areas at the back.

And as always....please do not enter the Club if you are feeling unwell and developing cold or flu like symptoms (including headache, fever, cough, sore throat, fatigue or shortness of breath).

And today's postscript....

DUST IF YOU MUST

Dust if you must, but wouldn't it be better
To paint a picture or write a letter?
Bake a cake or plant a seed
Ponder the difference between want and need?

Dust if you must, but there's not much time
With rivers to swim and mountains to climb,
Music to hear and books to read
Friends to cherish and life to lead.

Dust if you must, but the world's out there
With the sun in your eyes, the wind in your hair,
A flutter of snow, a shower of rain
This day will not come around again.

Dust if you must, but bear in mind
Old age will come and it's not kind
And when you go – and go you must
You, yourself, will make more dust.
